

Consumer Arbitration complaint form

Once we have collated information and evidence from yourself and the company you are complaining about (the company) ("Complete Case File") one of our arbitrators will review the Complete Case File and reach a decision on whether to uphold (and therefore award you a remedy) or dismiss your complaint.

When reaching his or her decision, the arbitrator will take account of:

- i) The information and evidence provided by both parties;
- ii) Relevant laws and regulations; and
- iii) What is fair and reasonable in the circumstances

It is therefore important that you complete all sections of the form and that you are careful to provide relevant, accurate and thorough information in relation to your complaint. It is also important that you provide us with any evidence that you have substantiate your claim.

Please enclose a cheque for the appropriate fee payable to Consumer Dispute Resolution Ltd, of either £10 (if the value of your complaint is less than £750) or £25 for claim values in excess of this. Please note that we cannot accept and process your complaint until this payment has been received in full. If you are successful with your claim, you will receive this money back from the company.

Finally, your complaint will processed in accordance with our scheme rules – which can be found on our website

Company information:

Consumer Arbitration is a trading name of Consumer Dispute Resolution Ltd

Arbitration is a non-judicial process for the settlement of disputes where an independent third party – an arbitrator – makes a decision that is binding.

The role of an arbitrator is similar to that of a judge, though the procedures can be less formal and an arbitrator is usually an expert in their own right.
